CARICATURIST TO ENTERTAIN AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Walter Owen of Acushnet will entertain with "Caricatures" at the meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club to be held this Thursday, December 14th, at 8 P.M. in the Congregational Church parish hall. Mr. Owen, a graduate of Swain School, New Bedford and Boston University, has taught at both these schools and is now teaching art in the New Bedford public schools. Mr. Owen is an author, lecturer, caricaturist and artist. The program has been arranged by the Art Group, Mrs. Philip Kelsey, chairman.

Members are asked to bring a non-perishable food item for the club's Christmas project. Mrs. Ross B. Hopkins will conduct the business meeting. Hostess during the coffee hour will be Mrs. Alvin Downing.

MATTAPOISETT JUVENILE GRANGE

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Friday night in the Grange hall, with the Worthy Master, Barry Denham, presiding.

During the business meeting it was announced the proceeds of the Christmas card sale started during the Grange Fair has been made up as a gift to the Subordinate Grange toward the plumbing expense and will be presented at the next Subordinate meeting. The next money making venture will be selling candy which was distributed Friday night. The proceeds of this sale will be used towards their Com-dent for 1962-3.

Dr. Frederick B. Chandler, treasurer, reported the total collection from organizations and individuals in Marion lacked only fifty dollars of the amount needed to bring a student to Marion for the 1962-3 school term.

Eugene A. Kennedy of Converse Road was present and elected to membership in the Chapter.

Mrs. William B. Macy reported for the nominating committee and presented the following slate of officers who were elected by unanimous vote: John Minter, chairman; Mrs. Isabel Talamo-Rossi, vice-chairman; Mrs. Ralph Thacher, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Kenneth Graham, recording secretary.

A vote of thanks was given Mr. Severance for his work as chairman over the past two years.

Mr. Minter opened the meeting for discussion on methods of finding host homes and student activities to support the future program. Mr. Severance was asked to keep in touch with those residents of Mattapoisett and Rochester who had expressed interest in a three-town A.F.S. committee.

It was voted that the chairman invite two committee members to serve with him as a subcommittee to meet with the Old Rochester Regional School Committee to discuss various phases of the local A.F.S. program and its relation to the school.

The next meeting will be at the call of the chairman.

Marion family had responded to the published call to be host to a foreign exchange stu-

CHRISTMAS FAIR IN MARION

Thursday, the 14th of December, the women of St. Gabriel's Church, Marion will hold the second part of their Christmas Fair, from two to six in the Sunday School building.

The highlight of the affair will be the display of Christmas greens. There will be beautiful wreaths, swatches for the front doors, mantel and table decorations. The candy table will have many items that can be used as favors for your Christmas parties. The children will have a room of their own--adults barred--where they may do their Christmas shopping. There are still many useful and attractive articles that will be offered by the sewing group.

During the afternoon tea will be served in the Parish house, and a supper will be held from six to seven. Reservations for the supper can by made by calling Marion 309.

MISS PRISCILLA BRADLEY WED IN NORTH CAROLINA

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradley of Mattapoisett announce the marriage of their daughter, Priscilla Ann, to Pfc Thomas K. Smith of Fort Bragg, North Carolina. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Fracasso on November 25th at Fort Bragg. A reception followed at the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Joseph Macedo of Fort Bragg, formerly of Mattapoisett.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white organza with round neckline and 3/4 length sleeves. Her finger tip veil was attached to a Queen Elizabeth crown of seed pearls.

Attendants were Sgt. and Mrs. Macedo. Mrs. Macedo wore a blue gown and a crown of seed pearls.

Mr. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Rogers Street, Fairhaven, is a member of the National Guard, 1st Howitzer Battalion. The couple are residing in Spring Lake, North Carolina.

and miniature boxes of candy for the four children, with an added attraction of a beautiful cake made by Mrs. Dorothy Harris. The cake was cut by Mrs. Randall and Mrs. Spagnoli. Following the supper, the master, Mrs. Le Baron, presented this young couple and gave a resume of their Grange history.

Leonard came from a Grange family beginning back to his paternal grandmother, Harriet B. Randall, who was one of the early joiners of the Grange as well as his maternal grandmother, who was a member of Marion Grange, coming down to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Randall, who have served the Grange for many years.

Leonard joined the Juvenile Grange in 1935 at the age of 9, his application being recommended by Dorothy (Denham) Farwell and her brother, John Denham, who were already members of the Juvenile Grange. The investigating committee being Jeanne DeCosta, Jean Caswell and Thelma Tarvis. This was the start of 26 years ago. Leonard started through the officers' line and in 1941 was installed master of the Juvenile Grange serving 2 years and then graduating into the Subordinate Grange, where he worked along in the line of officers to January 6, 1949 when he was installed master.

Marilyn was a member of South Middleboro Grange, and after these young people met at a Grange dance and in due time married, she came into the Mattapoisett Grange in 1950 master.

The evening meeting was opened at 8 o'clock with the Worthy Master Mildred LeBaron in the chair.

Honored guests were Joseph Bradford, deputy of the State Grange, and Alice Marshall, State chairman of the Home and Community Service Committee. She presented a rosette and check to Mrs. Joseph Furtado who was first place winner for crocheted table cloths in the State Grange.

Chairmen reports were given with several members reported sick from the Station of Flora.

The next meeting on December 21st will be a Christmas party with an exchange of 50¢ gifts.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM PRESENTED AT WOMAN'S CLUB

The Rev. Mrs. George Hill, Jr., minister of the First Congregational Church of Rochester, presented a program of vocal selections in keeping with the Christmas season for members of the Rochester Woman's Club at the December meeting. Interesting religious Yuletide customs of England, Italy, France, Austria, Norway, Sweden and the United States were described by Mrs. Hill and she sang some of the beautiful old carols and hymns of these countries. Songs included in the program were "O Christmas Tree", "I Wonder As I Wander", "Deck the Halls", "O Come to My Heart, Lord Jesus", "O Come All Ye Faithful", "O Holy Night", "Silent Night", "My Heart is Always Wandering" and "Come to the Stable". A candlelighting ceremony concluded the program with the reading of "For God So Loved the World" and a prayer. All members joined in with singing "O Little Town of Bethlehem".

At the business meeting a report on the reghan had been delivered to a veteran at the Lakeville sanitorium. Mrs. Winslow was assisted by Mrs. L. R. Doane in making the afghan and donations of knitted squares and money were made by club members.

Mrs. Marian Church, club president, asked each member to contribute a wrapped Christmas gift suitable for a woman and either leave it with her or bring it to the members' Christmas party which will be held on December 18th at the home of Mrs. Ward E. Benner. The gifts will be put in a basket and given to a deserving person. Those who plan to attend the dinner at Mrs. Benner's should call her and make a reservation.

A report of the executive board meeting held on November 29th was given. Present at this meeting were Mr. Robert Patrick, Scout Executive from New Bedford, and Mr. Harry Brown, Neighborhood Commissioner for Cachalot Council. Matters of policy for sponsoring organizations of scouts were discussed.

Announcement was made that the annual Children's Christmas Party would be held on Monday evening, December 11, at 6:30 at the clubhouse. A merry time is promised with Santa present to distribute gifts. Refreshments will be served and entertainment provided.

A letter of resignation was read from Mr. Calvin Daggett and Mr. Robert Doane, scoutmaster and chairman of the Troop 30 committee, respectively, which has been sponsored by the Rochester Woman's Club for the past eleven years. Mr. Daggett has served as scoutmaster for the past eight years. It was voted to have a special meeting of the club members on Wednesday evening, December 13th, at 7:30 P.M. to act on this letter and other matters of unfinished business.

Decor for the refreshment table was a beautiful arrangement of holly and greens centered with a silver bowl containing shiny red and green balls and flanked by silver candlesticks and white tapers. Delicious lemon-filled cupcakes and coffee were served at attractively appointed individual tables. Mrs. Robert Felton was hostess, assisted by Mmes. Abraham Jackson, Roger Wood and Albert Hellyer.
